HOUSE EXCHANGE ENQUIRIES

The Information Office has letters from Quebec City and from Edmonton regarding the possibility of exchanging houses for short periods this summer with faculty from UVic. Details may be obtained by phoning local 372 or 400.

INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PROTEST

UVic and high school students as well as interested members of the community have met to plan Victoria's participation in the International Day of Protest to be held on April 24th. The International Day of Protest will involve world wide demonstrations against the war in Vietnam.
For further information call 385-8405.

FACULTY NEWS

Professor Robin Skelton (English) has received one of the three annual Borestone Mountain Poetry Awards for 1970 for his poem "Everything". The awards are given annually to the three best poems published in periodicals of the English Speaking World. Professor Skelton has recently recorded some of his poetry for the archives of the Library of Congress.

Dr. Rodney Symington (German) attended a symposium on "Brecht in the Seventies" held at Rutgers University, April 1-3.

Professor Ann Saddlemeyer (English) is lecturing during April and May at University College, Galway; Trinity College, Dublin; and Queen's University, Belfast, for the Synge Centenary Celebrations. Professor Saddlemeyer has two books due out shortly: Some Letters of J.M. Synge to Lady Gregory and W.B. Yeats, Cuala Press, Dublin; and Letters to Molly: J.M. Synge to Maire O'Neill, Belknap Press, Harvard.

Dr. David C.Y. Lai (Geography) presented a paper entitled "Small Industries in Asian Countries: Hong Kong Example" at the meeting of the Western Division of the Canadian Association of Geographers.

Dr. Lloyd O. Ollila (Education) will present a paper entitled "Readiness Programmes in an Age of Sesame Street" at the Second Annual Reading Conference, University of British Columbia on April 16-17.

Dr. E. Limbrick (French) presented a paper to the Classical Literature section of the Pacific North West Conference on Foreign Languages, held at Boise, Idaho on April 16-17.

Miss Carol Wootton, Dr. T. Cleary and Dr. C.J.
Partridge (English) have each received Canada Council research awards. Dr. Cleary is travelling to England to work on a book on Fielding's political career. Dr. Partridge is completing a study of George Gissing's critical reputation. Dr.
Partridge recently published an article on "Katherine Anne Porter and Mexico".

Dr. Douglas Ayers (Education) will be attending the 17th International Congress of the International Association of Applied Psychology in Liege, Belgium on July 25-30. He will also be presenting a paper in the Symposium on "The Taxonomy of Educational Objectives".

FAREWELL

As this will be the last Newsletter until the Fall Session, may we take this opportunity of wishing you a long, lazy, happy summer from the people in
